Question —— assigned:

1. Explain with a sketch what is the clamped cubic spline interpolant S of a function f.

2. What is the difference between Newton's method and the Newton's divided differences ? Be precise and short.

3. Give the 3-points midpoint formula to compute the derivative of f at x_0. Provide an example as illustration.